How should Christians navigate speaking about their faith in a shifting culture?

Thursday 21st March

7:45 for 8pm @ St John's

Note for your diary

Come and hear the latest news as we move towards the launch of two services.

Please plan to stay for a short while after the morning meeting on

Sunday 31st March

We are aware that it is Mothering Sunday and plan to have a shorter service to accommodate the above.

Provision will made for the children.

CSW's - Nigeria: Leah Sharibyu was one of 110 girls kidnapped from their school in Dapchi, Yobe state, by the Islamic State on 19 February 2018. The Nigerian government negotiated the release of her classmates, Leah, the only Christian was denied freedom for refusing to convert. Please pray for Leah to remain strong and ultimately for her release.

Database

Is your information up to date? Have you moved, changed your phone number or email address? Then please do let the office know so we can update your details - Thank you.

pastoralhub@stjohnsblackheath.org.uk

Do you have a pastoral query or concern, some good news to share or a prayer request? The pastoral Hub is St John's confidential pastoral email address, accessed only by Eddie, Victoria and Sue our Parish Worker. It is available for anyone at St John's to use. Whilst Victoria is visiting family in Australia for a few weeks she will be responding to emails as usual and available for 'whatsapp' voice calls.

Sermon Notes:

Morning: Eddie Scrase-Field

Readings Mark 15:33-38 and Hebrews 4:14-16
Summary: Jesus is the perfect high priest and his work is permanent.

Aim: to have confidence to approach God through the great high priest Jesus.

Evening: Eddie Scrase-Field - Phil 4:10-23

Intro: Contentment, something we all struggle with!

1. Contentment with thanksgiving.
2. Contentment is grounded in the sufficiency of the Lord Jesus
3. Lasting contentment is learned and practised daily.
